LEADERS IN RESPONSIBLE LAND USE WORLDWIDE

The ROI of ULI Membership

5 reasons why you should Join ULI.

1. Make connections with the right people.

Only ULI brings together professionals like developers, architects, planners, attorneys, engineers, brokers, investors and lenders, and government officials involved in every sector of real estate development—housing, commercial, industrial, and resort. When you attend a ULI event, whether a local breakfast or a major conference, they will help you build relationships, make connections, and gain insight into new opportunities that will give you a competitive edge.

2. Look smart.

Use ULI's wealth of information and resources to get information you won't find anywhere else and to bring value to your clients or customers. Whether it is sharing an article from ULI's award-winning online magazine, calling on ULI's library to find just the information you need, or sharing what you learned at a local or national event, you will look like an expert on all kinds of real estate and land use issues.

3. Get the tools for future success.

ULI offers solid, reliable analysis of demographic and market trends and what it means for real estate at the local, regional, national, and international levels, saving you time and providing the insight you need to plan for future opportunities. Taking advantage of ULI educational workshops, webinars, and the Real Estate School will help you be more effective at understanding clients or doing better deals.

4. Improve your community.

ULI is working to make your community a better place to live by connecting the public and private sectors to discuss the real estate-related topics most important in your area, such as place making, redevelopment, housing, and transportation options. When you get involved in these meetings, you will discover where the opportunities will be before anyone else.

5. It's a good value.

Instead of paying for multiple memberships, when you join ULI, you have the convenience of a "one stop shop." With ULI's mix of industry professionals and rich content from every real estate sector, you can feel confident that you are getting the best value in networking opportunities and the information most essential to your business.
